Unchanged subscription fees for 2025

Nibor subscription fees are kept unchanged for 2025. Some amendments to the Terms and Conditions are under consideration. The delay on NoRe's website data will be extended.

Subscription fees

NoRe has decided that subscription fees for access to Nibor shall be kept unchanged for 2025. The subscription fees are available on NoRe's website <https://nore-benchmarks.com/subscribe/subscription-charges/>

Terms and condition

Terms and Conditions are under revision with the objective of clarifying what rights and limitations that follow a subscription. Revised Terms and Conditions, when ready, will be published on NoRe's website.

Delayed data published on NoRe's website

For non-professional users and for non-commercial use, delayed data is published on NoRe's website and available free of charge upon registration. NoRe has decided to revise the delay on NoRe's website data from one (1) business day to two (2) business days from 1 January 2025.
